Register with SAM

The System for Award Management (SAM) is a government-wide registry for vendors doing business with the Federal government, and SAM registration requires annual renewal. SAM centralizes information about grant recipients and also provides a central location for grant recipients to change organizational information. Grants.gov uses SAM to establish roles and IDs for electronic grant applicants.

SAM registration is not completed on the Grants.gov website. Once the SAM Registration is complete, you must return to Grants.gov to continue registration.

How to Register with SAM

1. Visit the System for Award Management website at <http://www.sam.gov/>.
2. Follow SAM's online instructions in their Help tab to create a user account and register or update your entity's SAM account.

Note: Once your SAM registration is active, you can return to Grants.gov and complete registration. It takes 24 hours for SAM Registration to activate after SAM has received all required information from registrants. SAM registration must be renewed annually. If you are updating or renewing your registration, it takes approximately 24 hours to activate.

Grant Opportunities

The goal of NAGPRA grants is to increase the number of successful returns of Native American human remains and cultural items.

What types of grants do you offer?

There are two types of NAGPRA Grants available:

Consultation/Documentation Grants support the efforts of museums, Indian Tribes, and Native Hawaiian organizations in consulting and documenting NAGPRA-related human remains and cultural items in non-Federal collections.

Repatriation Grants defray costs associated with the packaging, transportation, contamination removal, and/or storage of NAGPRA-related human remains and cultural items.

Who is eligible to apply?

Museums with NAGPRA collections, Indian Tribes (including Alaska Native tribes and villages), and Native Hawaiian organizations, all as defined under NAGPRA, are eligible to apply.
